

M. P. Munito Paris Jelwa

My dear and distinguished friend: He tells me the promise that he encounters in the papers of my dear nephew, for the future in which he is the author, that he will be very good, the best that can be possible and he informs me in which direction he is going to live the health of the other of the
19. June. Cristina Munito
